

THESIS PROJECTS

The purpose of the Thesis is to allow the student to pursue an independent line of study for an extended period in considerable depth, bringing together various skills from studio and classroom which have been acquired over the previous years. The Thesis is also a comprehensive summary of what has been learned to date, so technical competence must be exhibited in all aspects of a Thesis project. Thesis projects will not only be judged on the quality of work presented, but also on the processes used to produce it.
